

SYNOPSIS

GLOBAL TRADE: AN ECONOMIC BLESSING OR A PUBLIC NUISANCE?

Not many political issues have created so much dissent throughout the world as the globalization of trade. Emotions fly high though large parts of the world population are benefiting from the cheap prices of products manufactured in low-wage countries. The system seems to work in a satisfactory way when we are looking at its results. But who is paying for it?

STEEL WAR: AN ILLUSTRATION OF GLOBAL TRADE BY REALITY

Based on the recent conflict about the worldwide trade of steel which was opposing mainly the US, Brazil and the European Union the documentary reveals how the global trading system is functioning, how countries fight each other for their own interests and explains how such economic wars impact life and labour even in supposedly unconcerned countries.
